Craig Epton then spoke to the room and thank them for the position. He said that he was looking for input and fresh ideas and what happy to hear all thoughts regarding ways to reenergise the meeting.

Craig Epton advised that the first point he wanted to raise was the voting through of the amendment to Constitution to incorporate OMCG banning that had previously stalled at other meetings.

6. Guest Speaker: Darren Beeche

He invited Darren Beeche, Detective Chief Inspector Acting Crime Manager, and Bankstown Police Area Command to speak regarding the change.

Darren Beeche spoke about what the change meant to Policing powers as well as the expectations on the venues.

After a brief discussion it was agreed to adopt in writing as a "Term" of the Accord (s.134 LA). This new term would then provide OMCG banning within the Bankstown Liquor Accord.

Craig Epton advised that one of the first priorities was to establish what to do with the over $20,000 in the Bankstown Liquor Accord bank account. For this he was happy to hear recommendations.

Craig Epton mentioned that he would advise of future meeting date and location in due time but it would be around November before the Christmas period.
